AERIAL PROGRAM

Number 1—An exhibition flight in which the spiral, the dip, the ocean wave and similar sensational maneuvers will be demonstrated by the aviator.

Number 2—An altitude flight, in which the aviator will rise to an altitude of 5,000 feet or more.

Number 3—A glide for life by the aviator, with his motor "dead" from an altitude of 5,000 feet or more.

Number 4—A demonstration of accuracy in landing.

Number 5—An exhibition of bomb throwing, in which the aviator will throw oranges at a deck of a battleship, outlined in whitewash on the ground.

Number 6—A five mile flight against time, illustrating the great speed of an aeroplane.

Number 7—A race with a motor cycle or an automobile.

The Fair this year will excel all previous expositions in Circuit horse racing, stock shows, motorcycle races, side shows, special attractions and wonderful exhibits. Music will be furnished by the Clarksburg City Band.

Entry books will open Monday, September 9th, and closed Friday, September 13th.
MAKE YOUR ENTRIES EARLY.

Excursions will be run on all Railroads entering Clarksburg and there will be ample and continuous Trolley service to and from the grounds
